INFORMATION

Acknowledgements:

A big thank you to Asda, Hebden Royd Business Association, Hebden Royd TC, Sir George Martin Trust, Puffin Books, QMW Public Policy Seminars University of London, The Skillsgap.com, and Yorkshire Arts for your generous financial support. We are awaiting decisions from other funding sources and hope to be able to thank them! Thanks also to The Book Case, Calderdale Education Service, Caldergrub, Hebden Bridge Library, Hebden Bridge Tourist Centre, Hebden Bridge Picture House, Heptonstall Church, Holme Street Arts Centre, Hourglass Studio Gallery, Machpelah Works, Pennine Pens, TT Surveys and all the other organisations who have provided rooms, exhibition spaces and help in kind. We would also like to thank those who have taken advertising space in the programme.

Festival Desk:

There will be an information desk at the Tourist Information Centre in Hebden Bridge throughout the festival opening on Saturday 8 June. Tickets can be purchased for most events and for latest details. Open daily from 10.15 - 4.45. Or ring us on our 24-hour phone line (01422 842684), or email us on hbartsfestival@hotmail.com. Credit cards can be taken for telephone and postal bookings only (Visa and Mastercard only) - we regret we cannot take credit cards in person on the desk. There is a charge of £1 per credit card booking.

Advanced Bookings:

Booking by post opens on Monday 13 May. Please complete the booking form on page. Several events sold out quickly last year and we therefore recommend early booking for key events.

Garden Minibus Tour:

Saturday July 6 10.00am to 1.00pm and 2.00pm to 5.00pm
Meeting point Hebden Bridge TIC carpark. £6 (including garden admission costs). A door - to - door mini bus tour of three fascinating and less accessible gardens (Nos 25, 45 and 47) open in the Festival for the first time. Led by Kerry McQuade, HBT Gardening Correspondent. Tickets only available in advance, very limited numbers.

Organisation:

This is the ninth consecutive summer Arts Festival. We are a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity (no. 1070600).

Friends of the Festival:

We urgently need an organiser for the 'Friends'. If you are interested in finding out more please leave your name and telephone number on our 24 hour answerphone 01422 842684.

If you would like to be involved with the 2003 festival please leave your name and address with a volunteer at the festival desk or on 01422 842684.

Disabled Access:

Easy access to Hebden Bridge Little Theatre, Hebden Bridge Picture House, Heptonstall Parish Church, Holme Street Arts Centre. For information about access to other locations please check with the festival desk or direct with the venue.

Caldergrub Tuck :

Canapes, cookies and cakes to snack on, all from local cooks who source from local growers and suppliers will be catering at the Little Theatre throughout the festival from 2pm 25 June. Available at the Little Theatre whenever there is a festival event.

The right is reserved to substitute artists and vary the advertised programme if necessary. All information is correct at the time of going to press.
