

Well, we might be short of dough, but we've got cake! 2011 sees the 18th consecutive annual Arts Festival in Hebden Bridge. Our programmers have worked hard to bring you some of the most talented, exciting and innovative performers available. Poets, comedians, fiction-writers, dramatists, live artists and musicians from the world stage will all be sharing their work with you in the coming weeks. And don't miss the exhibitions, the free street entertainment and the brand new Fringe Festival.

To celebrate our 18th birthday, we have programmed special events exploring rites of passage. These are marked:

We are very grateful for the financial support of Hebden Royd Town Council. We would also like to thank our principal supporter Welcome to Yorkshire and sponsors Sweet & Maxwell and Hebden Bridge Bookshop. Thanks must also go to Calderdale Council, the Heptonstall Pace Eggars and to all those businesses who have offered support in kind. And last but certainly not least, we'd like to acknowledge the invaluable support of all our volunteers. You are too numerous to name individually, but we really couldn't do this without you. A big thank you to you all!

We hope you enjoy our special Coming of Age Festival and would like to thank you all for your continued support. Let the festivities commence!

Rebecca Yorke

The Fringe and beyond....!

Check out our Fringe benefits! The upstairs room at The White Lion is the official Fringe venue for two weeks of new, exciting and often experimental work. Poets, playwrights, musicians, comedians, magicians, live artists, DJ's - anyone with an artistic idea to communicate to an audience can now be part of the Festival by bagging a slot. It's where the surprises will happen so make sure you pop along to The White Lion and get a ticket. Full details at www.hbaf.co.uk or from the Festival box office.

Art About Town

There will be lots more going on during the Festival, including the great Summer Yarnstorming. Knitters of the world unite - it's not too late to get out your knitting needles or crochet hook and become a knitting anarchist! Whether you like to knit and natter or stitch and bitch, we'd like as many people as possible to join us in creating knitted street art. Bobble hats on bollards, knitted buns in the trees and the quest to create the longest yarn-chain decoration! Visit the Hebden Bridge Summer Yarnstorming facebook page for more ideas and inspiration, or just knit your piece and drop it in to the Festival box office, Ribbon Circus or Word of Mouth Crafts and Supplies for our yarnstorming team to distribute.

Also, keep an eye out for Ecuadorian artist Juan Cerruffo, who is based in Hebden Bridge and has been balancing stones and rocks for more than 20 years. During the Festival you will be able to see his art in the river by the Packhorse Bridge, at Hardcastle Crags and other places around Hebden Bridge.

Ale and Arty

Little Valley Brewery's Festivale will be available again to quench your thirst during the Festival. Enjoy a pint (responsibly of course) at venues including The Trades Club and the Little Theatre. In addition, Waite's Confectioners will be baking special Festival treats. And finally, don't forget to keep an eye out for Festival-themed window displays and special offers in our great local shops. We're trying to keep it Totally Locally here at Festival HQ, so make sure you take time to shop, eat and drink between performances.

Performances

Friday June 24

Hebden Shorts

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.30pm to 9.30pm approx

Festival Opening Night Special – Pay What You Want
No advance booking – turn up and pay on the door

Performances also on Saturday 25 and Sunday 26
June £10 (£8) for which advance booking is strongly advised.

Following a sell-out three-night run last year, the Hebden Shorts team (comprising writers Anna Clarkson, Paul Coates, Mark Illis, Stephen May, P. McCarthy and Dave Simpson & Di Whitley) return to open the Festival with six new short plays. Professionally acted and directed, the pieces vary in tone, style and subject matter and will make you smile, laugh and quite possibly cry. Last year's audiences are still talking about Hebden Shorts 2010 – book early to make sure you don't miss out.

Le Vezzose

St Thomas's Church, Heptonstall, nr Hebden Bridge

1pm to 2pm

£6 (£4) £1 for under 26s

Le Vezzose (The Graceful), formed by Mónika Mezei and Júlia Sárkány, is a Hungarian vocal ensemble with a mainly 17th century repertoire, including works by Barbara Strozzi, Claudio Monteverdi, Heinrich Schütz and Henry Purcell. They perform regularly to enthralled audiences in Budapest.

In this concert they are joined by two other singers, Maria Viz and Peter Keresztessy, to present a varied programme of solos, duets and trios from the baroque era.

All four singers are members of Ars Nova Sacra who are also performing in the Festival on Sunday June 26.

Saturday June 25 continued

Dennis Rollins' Velocity Trio

The Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9pm to 11.30pm

Dennis on stage at 9.30pm

£12 (£10)

The newest offering from this multi-award-winning British trombone star. Strongly infused with jazz and swing, Velocity Trio has a progressive, contemporary and (as you might expect from Mr Badbone) funky edge to its sound. Featuring organ virtuoso Ross Stanley and flamboyant Portuguese drummer Pedro Segundo, the synergistic energy of this project is truly unique, eclectic and mesmerising. Over the years, Dennis has lent his stylish talents to some of the world's top jazz and pop personalities such as Courtney Pine, Baba Maal, Jamiroquai, US3, Brand New Heavies and Blur. In the 2005 Arts Festival he gave an unforgettable performance to a sell-out crowd and he will undoubtedly do so this time. Book early!

Eric Sammut Three Spirals

Nebojsa Jovan Zivkovic Ultimatum

Alejandro Vinao The Khan Variations

A fascinating programme of mostly contemporary work written especially for the marimba and performed by one of the rising stars of the instrument.

Joe began playing percussion in 2005 and has performed all over the UK and abroad as a soloist, chamber musician and orchestral musician in a huge array of musical contexts from contemporary classical music to African drumming at venues including the Wigmore Hall, St. Martin in the Fields, Cadogan Hall, Sadler's Wells Theatre, The O2 and London's Southbank Centre. He has also made several appearances on national television.

Sunday June 26 continued

Choirs in the Chapel Ars Nova Sacra and Glasgow Madrigirls

Wainsgate Chapel, Wainsgate Lane, Old Town

3pm to 6pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

Two excellent and highly contrasting choirs in a special Festival double bill. Ars Nova Sacra is a chamber ensemble from Budapest, well known throughout Hungary for its compelling blend of early and contemporary music. In the superb acoustic of Wainsgate Chapel the group will perform works by Gibbons, Liszt, Gesualdo, Monteverdi, Kodály and Bartók amongst others.

Coming from a different place, geographically and musically, Glasgow Madrigirls present a varied programme including a selection of women's work songs from around the world, and a new piece by Glasgow based composer Drew Hammond. The group consists of female undergraduates, postgraduates, alumni and friends of the University of Glasgow.

Afternoon tea will be taken in the chapel grounds during the interval between the two concerts. Tea and cake will be available to buy, or why not bring a picnic?

The Collision

Ted Hughes Theatre, Calder High School,
Mytholmroyd

8pm to 10pm approx
£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

Excellent new band featuring some of the best young musicians in the area. Great singers and instrumentalists playing guitars, keyboards, bass and drums, plus a whole array of unusual instruments!

Since April the band has been working with musician and teacher Dave Nelson and singer-songwriter Lucy Conroy writing new songs and music that make use of the current musical styles already familiar to the performers such as rock, hip hop and metal and also some less explored areas like world music, jazz and contemporary classical. At the heart of the band are the gong-like tones of Javanese gamelan, the driving rhythms of African and Eastern European drums and the subtle charms of a host of other instruments not normally associated with rock music. This concert is the product of all those weeks of creativity and effort. It's different, it's edgy, it's very exciting and it's an absolute one-off!

Wednesday June 29

Russell Kane Smokescreens & Castles

Hebden Bridge Picture House

8pm to 10pm approx
£15 (£13)

Don't miss this opportunity to see the 2010 winner of the Edinburgh Comedy Award and co-host of ITV2's I'm A Celebrity Get Me Out Of Here NOW! Smokescreens & Castles explores self, family and the consequences of Russell's dad buying his own council house. Sociological silliness and high energy contortions guaranteed. Russell will be supported by Chris Ramsey at this performance.

'It's a heartbreaking and inspiring show — a document of our times. A masterpiece' (The Sunday Times)

Thursday June 30

Melvin Burgess and Michael Stewart

aj's Restaurant

8pm to 9.30pm

£7 (£3 under 26s) – includes chips!

Melvin Burgess made his name and redefined the parameters of young adult fiction with the controversial Carnegie Prize-winning novel Junk. Burgess has since written other ground-breaking teenage novels, including Doing It and Sarah's Face.

Michael Stewart is a multi-award-winning writer, born and brought up in Salford. He has written several full-length stage plays as well as working in radio and television. His debut novel King Crow was published earlier this year. This event is supported by Hebden Bridge Bookshop.

Mônica Vasconcelos: Vintage Brasil

The Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 11pm

Mônica on stage at 8.30pm

£12 (£10)

Mônica Vasconcelos (Brazil): Vocals, percussion

Guillermo Hill (Uruguay): Guitars, vocals

Nick Ramm (UK): Piano, keyboards

Andrés Lafone (Uruguay): Bass guitar

Marius Rodrigues (Brazil): Drums

Since moving to the UK, Brazilian singer-songwriter Mônica Vasconcelos has established a reputation as one of the finest exponents of samba and bossa nova this side of the Atlantic.

Whether performing at international jazz and world music festivals, or in clubs such as Ronnie Scott's, Mônica never fails to delight her audiences. Her repertoire ranges from cool, jazz-inflected 'sambossa' grooves to the more exuberant dance beats from her latest album Vintage Brasil.

Book early and don't miss this gig!

Twelve Wild Ducks multi story theatre company

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

11am to 11.55am 2pm to 2.55pm

£6 (£4)

Be careful what you wish for. That's what the Queen discovers when, after having twelve sons, she wishes for a daughter. For at the very moment her beautiful daughter is born, her sons are transformed into wild ducks.

When Princess Snow-Rose learns what happened to her brothers, she sets out to try to release them from their enchantment. She must weave and sew twelve shirts from nettles. And, as if that isn't hard enough, for three years she must stay silent and neither smile nor weep.

This traditional Norwegian tale is a fabulous fable of determination in the face of great hardship.

multi story bring their customary magic to bear with a blend of live music, magical word-weaving and engaging physicality in this show for 5 -11 year olds and their families.

Tom Palmer and his Fabulous Football Reading Game

Fun for all the family!

Central Street Infant School, Hebden Bridge

3pm to 4pm

£3 (£2)

Does anyone in your family like football? Have they read about it in newspapers, magazines and books? Or would you like them to? Tom Palmer writes football stories for children aged 7-11, including the Foul Play and Football Academy series for Puffin. Come and take part in his fabulous Football Reading Game. This is a family activity with a (not very difficult) quiz about football followed by a penalty shoot out. The winner receives a football trophy for the family! Lots of fun - and an antidote to the bleak summer months without football.

John Law: Solo Piano Concert

St Thomas's Church, Heptonstall nr Hebden Bridge

8pm to 10pm

£10 (£8) £2 under 26s

John Law will be playing original compositions as well as selections from his two acclaimed solo albums in the four CD Art of Sound series.

Known for straddling both classical (in which he started) and jazz, John's aim is to make the improvising sound like it's been composed and the compositions as simple and direct as if they've been improvised there and then. In addition he brings to jazz a love of wide dynamic range and different touch, something which can best be experienced in the solo format.

As well as an interest in advanced harmony and rhythm, John's compositions and playing also explore harmonic simplicity and straight grooves. A highlight of the Piano Weekend.

Chris Dobrowolski: Antarctica

aj's Restaurant, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 9.30pm

£7 (£3 under 26s) – includes chips!

In an attempt to escape from art college, Chris Dobrowolski built a boat from driftwood and tried to sail it across the River Humber. He failed.

In his ongoing attempt to escape the art world he recently undertook an artist's residency in the Antarctic and tried to make a sledge from gold picture frames.

Using images, film and anecdotes of homemade vehicles, Chris will tell the story of his efforts to make art whilst everyone around him is trying to save the planet.

Robin Ince's Bad Book Club

Hebden Bridge Picture House,
New Road, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 10pm

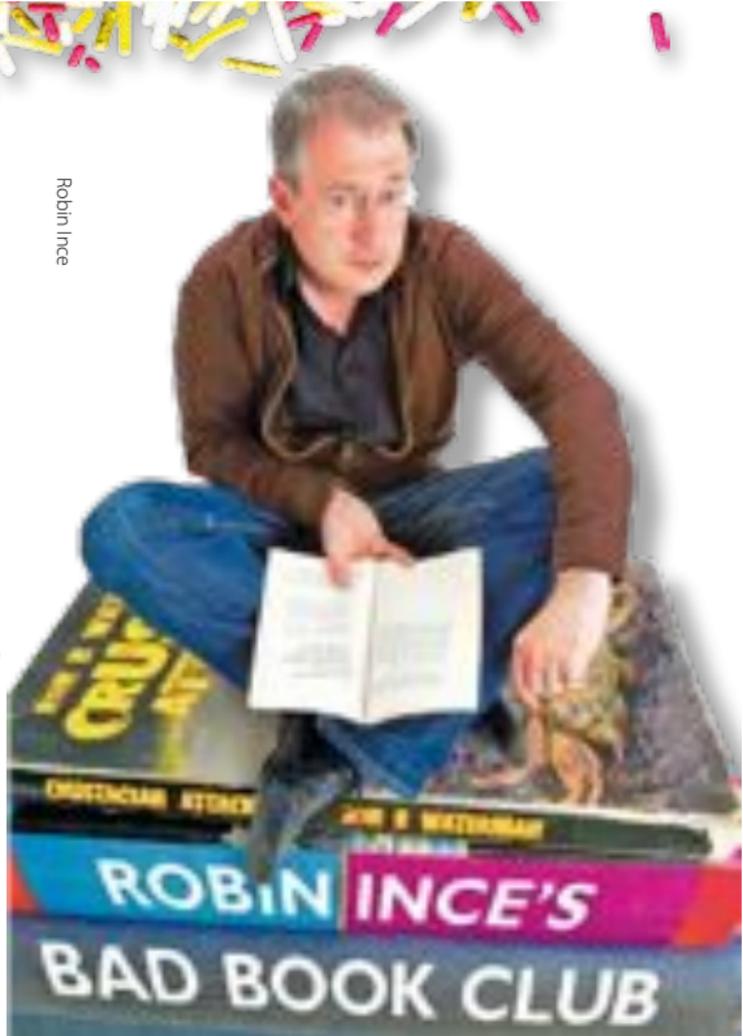

£12 (£10)

Robin Ince, multi-award-winning comedian and TV and radio regular, is back in Hebden Bridge with his latest one-man show, Robin Ince's Bad Book Club. The show is a compilation of the world's worst and inadvertently hilarious books, all of which were purchased in second-hand shops for less than £3 or were donated by fellow enthusiasts. From Crabs on the Rampage to The Secrets of Picking Up Sexy Girls, Robin reveals the most wonderful and hideous books that have gained entry into his bad book club.

Robin has just completed a sell-out tour of Uncaged Monkeys and a new series of Radio 4's Infinite Monkey Cage with Professor Brian Cox. He has won three Chortle awards and the Time Out Award for Outstanding Contribution to Comedy.

Festival Film: Son of Babylon

Hebden Bridge Picture House,
New Road, Hebden Bridge

7.45pm to 10.15pm approx

£7 (£5)

Northern Iraq, 2003. Two weeks after the fall of Saddam Hussein. Ahmed, a 12-year-old boy begrudgingly follows in the shadow of his grandmother.

On hearing news that prisoners of war have been found alive in the South, she is determined to discover the fate of her missing son, Ahmed's father, who never returned from the Gulf War.

The film will be introduced by producer Isabelle Stead.

Lockerbie: Unfinished Business

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.30pm to 9pm approx

£12 (£10)

When 270 people were killed in Britain's worst terrorist atrocity, grieving father Jim Swire found his faith in his own country's legal system shattered. His shocking story is told in this Fringe First award-winning production by writer/performer David Benson and director Hannah Eidinow.

Using a blend of verbatim material and dramatisation, Benson presents Swire's ongoing struggle to find the truth in a hard-hitting piece of political theatre with international relevance. The tragedy has new-found topicality since the release of Abdelbaset Ali al-Megrahi, the man convicted for the bombing. This show reveals a very different story to the one in the headlines, casting doubt on the official version of events in an urgent and compelling piece of theatre.

*'A show that every thinking citizen of this country should see, and act upon. ****'* (The Scotsman)

percussion

Rip-roaring, foot-stomping, jazz-inflected klezmer and Balkan music from some of Scotland's finest musicians. An intoxicating, life-affirming mix of Eastern European dance music, Middle Eastern rhythms and virtuoso performances.

Formed in Edinburgh in 2003, Moishe's Bagel combines the energy and passion of Eastern European folk music with the excitement and soul of improvisation. Boasting some of the best instrumentalists that Scotland has to offer (Salsa Celtica, Scottish Chamber Orchestra, Celtic Feet, Scottish National Jazz Orchestra), their sound mixes klezmer, folk dance, jazz, eastern percussion and more, topped off with dazzling musicality and classical rigour. The result is a band which has the excitement of occasional improvisation, with an energy that keeps it all highly danceable, visually exciting and mind-bogglingly good to listen to!

'Expressive and raunchy...improvising confidence but with a classical attention to detail' (The Guardian)

The Hepton Singers

Directed by Alison West and Roger Scaife

St Thomas's Church, Heptonstall nr Hebden Bridge

8pm to 10pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

A regular favourite at the Festival, this excellent, 30-strong chamber choir presents an intriguing programme of choral works from the 20th and 21st centuries, including Ravel's Trois Chansons, Britten's Choral Dances from Gloriana, James MacMillan's Divo Aloysio Sacrum and Howard Skempton's haunting sequence Rise up, my love. The choir will also sing an unusual choral work by Elgar, as well as songs by Arvo Pärt, Eric Whitacre and work by Saddleworth-based composer, Peter McGarr.

The Poetry Business Writing Day

Lumb Bank, Ted Hughes Arvon Centre, Heptonstall

10.15am to 4pm

£30 (£25) includes entry to evening poetry event
£25 (£20) writing day only

It is 25 years since publishers The Poetry Business produced the first issue of the influential poetry magazine The North. Over the last quarter century The North has allowed many Northern voices to flourish, including Simon Armitage and Carol Ann Duffy. Ann and Peter Sansom of The Poetry Business will lead a day of workshops in the inspirational setting of Lumb Bank. There will be writing exercises in the morning and a critical workshop in the afternoon.

Please bring a poem (and ten copies) for the afternoon workshop – or better still write one to discuss from the morning session.

'Ann and Peter Sansom are incomparably experienced and inspirational tutors with a brilliant repertoire of exercises' (The Poetry Trust)

Lucy and the Caterpillar

Hole in t'Wall, Hangingroyd Lane, Hebden Bridge

9pm to 12am

Acoustic singer-songwriter Lucy Conroy has been described as many things, including a Mancunian Jean Seberg and a female Jose Gonzalez. She has numerous Radio 1 and XFM sessions to her credit, gigs regularly in Manchester and London and has featured in The Guardian. Lucy and her guitar ('the Caterpillar') are no strangers to Hebden Bridge, but they rarely perform here. Don't miss this opportunity to be enchanted!

'The charming, diminutive Lucy Conroy has a strong sweet voice and vulnerability about her, but the songs are far from soft and twee: in fact they are short, sharp and quite mischievous' (The Guardian)

Trickster Theatre presents

A Warning Against Idle Gossip

St Thomas's Church, Heptonstall
Thurs 7 & Fri 8 July 7.30pm (doors 7pm)
England 1556: religious persecution and public executions are rife. To save his position and his life, Deacon Thomas Wollerton recants his faith and disowns his wife. Then a vagabond takes sanctuary in his church. Cutpurse Wallop is a wanted man, but his fate will be nothing to that of the deacon, if he tells the authorities what he has overheard.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgments

A huge thank you to Welcome to Yorkshire, Hebden Royd Town Council, Calderdale Council, Sweet & Maxwell, Hebden Bridge Bookshop and the Heptonstall Pace Eggers for their financial help. We would also like to thank Dr Linda Patterson for her sponsorship of the Grand Piano at Heptonstall Church. More thanks are owed to Hole in t'Wall, The White Lion, Print Bureau, Squeeze, Croft Mill, Zebra Photography and Harold Crabtree for their continued help and support. We are also very grateful to all the other individuals and businesses who have offered help in kind. Thank you also to those who have taken advertising space in the programme. Finally, a special thanks to our volunteers (and their very understanding families) without whom the Festival would cease to exist.

Festival Gallery and Box Office

The box office is at New Oxford House, Albert Street, Hebden Bridge HX7 8AH (opposite the Albert Pub) where regular exhibitions are held throughout the year. The box office will open daily from Saturday June 11 to the end of the Festival between 10.30am and 5pm (from noon on Sundays). Please call in to see our exhibition and to catch up on all the latest Festival information.

Booking Information

- We do not charge for postal or telephone bookings but there is a £1 charge for posting out tickets. There will be a charge for online booking, but this is levied by the e-ticketing provider.
- Tickets cannot be reserved without payment.
- Tickets cannot be exchanged or refunded except in the event of a show cancellation.
- Festival events start punctually at the advertised time. To avoid disruption to the performers and to other members of the audience, latecomers may not be admitted.
- There are no numbered seats for any event and seating at the Trades Club is not guaranteed.
- Concession prices apply to full-time students, the unemployed, disabled visitors (and one helper), senior citizens and children 16 and under. You will need to be able to present proof of your status when booking or at the venue.

Contacting Us

The Festival telephone is staffed "live" during opening hours from June 11 to July 10 and at all other times there is an answerphone. Phone messages are checked daily. Call on 01422 842684 or email at hbfestival@gmail.com

Advance Booking

Postal booking and online booking opens on Monday May 9. Please complete the booking form in the centre of the brochure, download one from our website or go direct to wegottickets.com. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept telephone or face-to-face bookings before the box office opens on June 11.

Festival Website

Check our website at www.hbaf.co.uk for the latest details and press releases. You can also keep up to date via Facebook.

Future Information

If you would like to be kept in touch with the Festival by email or post, please complete the form on the box office desk or email us at hbfestival@gmail.com.

HBaffs (Hebden Bridge Arts Festival Friends)

Details of our Friends scheme are available on our website or from the Festival Box Office. Please sign up to help ensure the future of the Festival.

Liability

Hebden Bridge Arts Festival cannot accept liability for any loss, damage or injury sustained by any member of the public visiting any open studios, exhibitions or outdoor events featured in this programme. The public participate in these events entirely at their own risk.

Organisation

This is the eighteenth consecutive summer Arts Festival. We are a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity (no. 1070600).

Volunteers

If you would like to be involved with the 2012 Festival please leave your name and address with a volunteer in the box office or telephone 01422 842684. New faces are always welcome.

Venue Information & Disabled Access

All Hebden Bridge venues are a short walk from the centre of town. Mytholmroyd venues, Heptonstall Church and Wainsgate Chapel can be reached by public transport. There is disabled access to Little Theatre, Picture House, aj's, Heptonstall Church and the Festival Box Office, where the door at the rear of the building has no steps. For information about access to other venues, please enquire at the box office or directly with the venue.

The right is reserved

To substitute artists and vary the advertised programme if necessary. All information is correct at the time of going to press.

Finally, a word from one of our sponsors....

We wish the Hebden Bridge Arts Festival great success with its 2011 programme of events!

Sweet & Maxwell (part of Thomson Reuters) is a publisher of legal information both online and in print, with a history dating back to 1799. Based in London, but with a large office in Mytholmroyd, our range of titles and online services is one of the most distinguished in the world today.

This is the fourth successive year we have supported the Festival. As a leading employer in the Calder Valley, we have a strong commitment to the community and our role within it. We hope our support of the Festival will continue to develop this relationship.
